Appreciation:

First, the developer sincerely wishes to thank Elder Dr. Louis Bird, from the Weenusk First Nation, for providing the traditional Omushkego stories in this collection, Elder Gilbert Faries, from the Moose Cree First Nation, for telling the animal stories (from Ellis, D.C. (1995). Cree Legends and Narratives from the West Coast of James Bay. Winnipeg, MB: The University of Manitoba Press, pp. 282–289.), and Wesley Solomon and Larson Wesley, from the Attawapiskat First Nation, for drawing the original illustrations contained in this resource document.

Second, the developer wishes to thank Greg Spence, from the Moose Cree First Nation, for his work translating the material in this document and his efforts in revitalizing and maintaining Omushkego culture and language.

Third, the developer wishes to thank Omushkego Education Director of Education Irene Tomatuk and Student Success Planning Coordinator Christina Nielsen for their support of culturally relevant programs in the Mushkegowuk schools and communities.

Finally, the developer wishes to thank Grand Chief Jonathon Solomon and the leadership of Mushkegowuk Council for their efforts to revitalize the Omushkego culture in the Mushkegowuk territory.
